The North Sea Race is Scarborough Yacht Club's Blue Ribbon event, taking place annually in July. The course is from Scarborough to Ijmuiden, Holland, a distance of around 210 nautical miles, a good test of seamanship, where competitors encounter the rigours of the North Sea, with a few oil rigs thrown in to dodge for good measure. Thousands of spectators watch the spectacular start from the East Pier, which is featured on local radio and television. The event is an open race with between 20 – 25 yachts taking part. All competitors are very welcome and come from up and down the North East coast to enjoy the hospitality of the Club prior to the start.
